TIRED OF SIGNING DISMISSAL ORDERS

Secretary Mellon Is Given Copy of Statement
By Dry Chief, But Refuses To Comment.

BY ALFRED P. RECK.
Washington, September 9.—(United News.)—Bribery is rampant in the federal prohibition enforcement service, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Lowman declared today in announcing the start of a general cleanup in the ranks of the dry agents.

"There are many incompetent and crooked men in the service," he added, "and by many I mean a whole lot. They are everywhere. We are after them. Sometimes my arm gets tired signing dismissal orders."

Lowman explained that an average of from three to four are being dismissed daily. On some days the dismissal orders are stacked high on his desk, he said.

Bombshell.

The statement issued by the assistant secretary, who is directly in charge of prohibition enforcement, customs and coast guard, came as a bombshell in the treasury department.

A few minutes after it was issued,
Secretary Mellon was handed a copy.
He read it, shaking his head dubious-ly, but refused to comment.

Lowman spared no words in attacking the men under his jurisdiction.

"There are many wolves in sheep's clothing," he declared. "We are after them. A lot of them have lately been dismissed."

PRESIDENT PLANS PROBE OF FLIGHTS

Investigation Will Be Designed to Accumulate
Scientific and Practical Data.

Rapid City, S. D., September 9.— (United News.)—President Coolidge is planning an investigation of recent trans-oceanic flights when he returns to Washington next week, it was officially indicated at the summer executive offices today.

While the president has received no intimation that any of the many lost planes were improperly equipped and does not harbor any suspicions about the flights, he is desirous that all information regarding navigability of oceans by air should be collected and used for future development of air traffic.

The plan for the investigation has not yet been fully formulated in the president's mind; it might be conducted by the air bureau of the department of commerce or by a committee of congress. It would be designed, according to the president's present intention, toward accumulating scientific and practical data for future air use rather than toward fixing any responsibility for recent tragedies.

Will Hold Conferences.

Coolidge made known that he intends to hold a series of important conferences with all government officials as soon as he returns to Washington. He will probably meet next Tuesday with his cabinet for the first time in three months.

In addition, Coolidge intends to call in senators and representatives to obtain their views regarding air affairs which have developed during his vacation.

While expressing his deep regret over recent airship disasters, losses of life in these attempts still further increase his respect for the feat of Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh and makes him believe that it is even more remarkable than people generally thought at the time.

Coolidge feels that he is not enough expert to say whether regulatory leg-

Refuses Vessels.

In reply to Harold E. Hartney, president of the General Airways corporation of New York, who had suggested that ships be stationed along the proposed route of Brock and Schlee, the secretary said no vessels were available and, if they were, he would oppose their use.

"I do not think the flight should be attempted in a land plane even if ships were placed at various stations," the secretary wired.

Plain indications multiplied during the day that the public had had its fill of this type of adventure and the public opinion was mirrored in numerous ways.

EAST POINT MAN TAKES OWN LIFE

F. B. Reese, Carpenter, Shoots Self With Shotgun; Ill Health Given as Reason for Act.

Seizing a shotgun in the presence of his four-year-old daughter, who was screaming to her mother, "Papa has the gun and is going to shoot himself," F. B. Reese, 52, a carpenter, killed himself at his home at 304 Hendrix avenue, East Point, Friday afternoon before members of his family could interfere.

According to the report given by Mrs. Reese to East Point officers, her husband had been in ill health for some time, being in much pain all Thursday night. Friday afternoon he left the front porch, where he had been sitting, and went to a room in the rear of the home and picked up a shotgun and fired at himself, the first shot missing his body entirely and lodging in the ceiling of the room.
The second shot was true to mark, striking Reese in the abdomen, killing him instantly, his wife said.

As Reese picked up the gun his four-year-old daughter, Mildred, was also in the room and rushed to the front of the house and notified her mother of her father's act, but before Mrs. Reese could reach the back room the two shots had been fired.

The body was removed to the under-taking parlors of A. O. Hemperly & Son at East Point.

A coroner's inquest into the death of Reese will be held at 11 o'clock this morning in the funeral chapel of the Hemperly company. Funeral arrangements have not been completed.

Reese is survived by his widow and three daughters, Mildred, age 4;
Sarah, 2, and Virginia, an infant.

ACTS OF RESERVE BOARD DENOUNCED BY CARTER GLASS

Washington, September 9.—Legislation to curb the powers of the federal reserve board was demanded today by Senator Carter Glass, democrat, of Virginia, in a statement denouncing the board for its arbitrary action in ordering a reduction in the discount rate of the Chicago Federal Reserve bank.

Senator Glass, one of the authors of the federal reserve act, as chairman of the house committee on banking and currency and who was later, while secretary of the treasury, the ex-officio chairman of the federal reserve board, denounced the action in the Chicago case as unsparing terms.

"One is justified in the inference," declared Senator Glass, "that it is the deliberate purpose of the board as now constituted to appropriate arbitrary authority which congress never intended it should exercise, and I think congress should promptly and peremptorily cure this situation by legislation on which nobody will misinterpret."

Other developments in the situation which is causing a furor in Washington as well as in financial circles throughout the country included the following:

Disclosure that the action of the board in forcing a reduction in the Chicago rate from 10 to 8 1/2 per cent was by a vote of 4 to 3, thus confirming reports of a sharp division of opinion within its membership.

A discussion on the matter participated in by Secretary of the Treasury Mellon and Benjamin Strong, governor of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, whose influence is credited with having been an important factor in forcing general reduction in discount rates.

By Dr. R. Crissinger, governor of the federal reserve board, that the action was due to the influence of Montagu Norman, head of the Bank of England, or that the lowering of rates should lead to stock speculation and inflation.

Insistence by Mr. Crissinger and other members of the board that the effect of the lower level of rates would be a favorable factor in the business situation.

In assertion by Edmund Platt, vice governor of the federal reserve board,

DECISION DELAYED ON VIADUCT PACT

Council To Investigate
Feasibility of Building
Viaducts Without Power Company Contribution.

Investigation of the feasibility of constructing the Pryor street and Central avenue viaducts without financial assistance of the Georgia Power company, and reopening of negotiations with the exclusive traction franchise sought to the new bridges only, instead of for the entire city, and still make the contribution, were ordered Friday afternoon at a special meeting of the bridge committee of council.

William A. Hansell, chief of construction for the city, will be interviewed by William B. Hartsfield, chairman of the committee, relative to the first proposition, with a view of ascertaining the cost of the viaducts and the money which the city can anticipate without the power company contribution, and Preston S.
Arkwright, president of the power company, will be approached by Mr.
Hartsfield as to the reaction of the company to the second proposal.

If the city can construct the viaducts from the money it will have after railroads affected and Fulton county have made contributions, the bridge committee probably will recommend such a procedure, which would prevent the power company from running street car tracks over them.

Both Mr. Hansell and Mr. Ark-wright were out of the city Friday night and could not be reached for statements.

No Action Taken.

No action was taken on the compromise measure offered by the power company pending results of the investigation and possible reopening of negotiations with the traction company. The committee adjourned subject to call of the chairman. Another meeting probably will be held Monday or Tuesday after Mr. Hartsfield completes his report in accordance with instructions of the committee.

RUTH ELDER ENDS FLIGHT AT TAMPA

Pretty Aviatrix and Companion Determined To Cross Atlantic Despite Drive To End Trips.

Tampa, Fla., September 9.—(AP)—
Smiling and confident, Miss Ruth Elder, pretty Lakeland aviatrix who,
with George Halderman, plans to span the Atlantic next week, dropped her Stinson-Detroit monoplane, "The American Girl," gracefully to earth here today, 11 hours and 44 minutes after leaving Detroit.

Going slightly out of her way to pass over her home in Lakeland to dip in greeting, the 23-year-old girl arrived over the municipal field here at 5:40 p. m., circled twice while she waved to the crowd below and then dropped down three minutes
later.

An escort of three planes that went aloft to meet her were distanced by the speedy monoplane, which averaged slightly better than 100 miles per hour on the trip from Detroit and arrived over the field several minutes
later.

Four in Plane.

Accompanying her on the trip were George Halderman, co-pilot and her companion on the proposed flight to Europe; O. H. Porter, aeronautical expert from the Stinson factory, and Ed Cornell, of Lakeland, friends and associate of Halderman. Halderman and Miss Elder occupied the pilots' seats and alternated at the controls.

A crowd of approximately 300 people broke the safety ropes when the huge buff and blue monoplane touched down and rushed to the machine be-

Illinois Beauty of 16 Wins Beauty Laurels

UNBOBBED BLONDE NAMED MISS AMERICA

BY A. L. GORDON.
(By Leased Wire to The Constitution and The Chicago Tribune.)

Atlanta City, N. J., September 9.—
Miss Lois Eleanor Delander (Miss Illinois), of Joliet, a slim, 16-year-old beauty, with blue-gray eyes and blonde hair, was crowned Miss America late tonight before a crowd of thousands in the big auditorium of Young's million-dollar pier.

The golden apple, containing the ballots of the 15 judges, was opened at 10:30 o'clock by Miss Atlantic City.

It contained the names of only two of the 72 entrants in the beauty pageant, all of the other beauties having been eliminated before the final balloting at noon today.

The runner-up was Miss Mozelle Ransome, 18, of Dallas, Texas, competing as Miss Dallas. The number of votes she received was not announced as only enough ballots were counted to assure the winner of election.

Miss Delander has unbobbed hair.
She is 5 feet 4 1/2 inches tall, and is slender.

She lives at 111 Blackman avenue,
Joliet, and is a student in high school
there. She has no desire, she says, to go on the stage. She wants to be an artist.

Miss Dallas, the runner-up, is of a contrasting type of beauty. She is taller, heavier, and has dark hair.

She is exactly the same as Miss America's, and she is of about the same weight. She, too, is a high schoolgirl. Her home is at 4015 Cedar Springs, Dallas.

Riding a float by far the most elaborate in the division, devoted to industrial beauties, Frieda Louise Mierse (Miss New York), this afternoon carried off the grand prize in the famous rolling chair parade.

Miss New York rode to victory in the cockpit of a plane soaring behind two skyscrapers behind which stood Father Knickerbocker. The plane rode over a bridge which might have been Brooklyn bridge and a river which might have been the East river.

In all 16 prizes were awarded, three in each of the five geographic divisions and the grand prize.

In the middle Atlantic division,
first place went to Miss Philadelphia, second to Miss Pennsylvania and third to Miss Elizabeth (New Jersey). Miss Dallas (Miss New York) and Miss New Orleans (Miss Louisiana) were in the order of the southern group. Miss Illinois, Miss Hammond and Miss Saginaw were the prize winners in the middle western division and Miss Tulsa, Miss Wisconsin and Miss St. Louis in the western.

OLD GLORY SEEN, MESSAGE REPORTS

Ships Will Search, But Authorities of Two Countries Doubt Value
of Report.

Halifax, N. S., September 9.—(AP)—
C. H. Harvey, local agent for the marine and fisheries department, received a message tonight from Ottawa stating the airplane Old Glory had been sighted approximately 400 miles east-northeast of St. Johns.

The origin of the message was not stated but Harvey at once had it broadcast through the government radio stations requesting all Canadian vessels in that vicinity to hasten to render every aid.

The text of the message as given out by Harvey was:

"The airplane Old Glory reported sighted 49.55 north 40.39 west, approximately 400 miles east-northeast of St. Johns. All Canadian vessels in vicinity requested to render every assistance possible."

The message referred to by Mr.
Harvey came to him through Commander Brodeur here. Questioned by the Canadian Press, Commander Brodeur said the message came to him at 10 o'clock tonight from the naval department at Ottawa.

The airplane Old Glory, last reported its position as "five hours out of Newfoundland, east in an S O S
call at 3:17 a. m. eastern standard time, September 7. The liners Carman-ia and Transylvania made a futile search in the area from which it was estimated the call had come."

Captain Bone, of the Transylvania, reported from latitude 49.22 north, longitude 42.27 west: "We searched area without result. . . . California seeking to northward and American Merchant to eastward."

From the Carmania, giving its position as 49.25 north and 39.22 west, came the report that it was searching for the missing plane. Three hours later, at 5:30 p. m. eastern standard time,
the captain reported: "Now nightfall and quite dark. Begret search for missing plane Old Glory without result."

BRIBERY ATTEMPT LAID TO INDIANA CHIEF EXECUTIVE

Official Who Succeeded
Warren T. McCray Is Accused of Offering
$10,000 for Appointment.

COUNSEL FOR KLAN ALSO IS INDICTED

Mayor John L. Duvall, of Indianapolis, Faces Charge of Violation of Corrupt Practices Act.

Indianapolis, Ind., September 9.— (AP)—Governor Ed Jackson, who took office a little more than two years ago, today was indicted by the Marion county grand jury on a charge of attempting to bribe Warren T. McCray, his predecessor.

Another indictment was returned against John L. Duvall, mayor of Indianapolis. It charged violation of the corrupt practices act.

The Jackson indictment charged conspiracy to commit a felony, and attempt to bribe, and grew out of the alleged offer by Jackson of $10,- 000 to McCray if he would name
James E. McDonald as Marion county prosecutor. The purported offer came at the time when Jackson was secretary of the state and McCray was under indictment on forgery charges. Immunity from conviction also was alleged to have been promised McCray.

Klan Lawyer Named.

Robert I. Marsh, Indianapolis, formerly a law partner of Governor Jackson and counsel for the Marion county chapter of the Ku Klux Klan, also was named in the same indicument, as was George Coffin, republican county chairman.

D. C. Stephenson, former grand dragon of the Indiana Ku Klux Klan, and now a life convict at the Michigan City, Ind., prison, conspired with Jackson, Coffin and Marsh in the effort to bribe McCray, the indictment set forth.

Stephenson testified before the grand jury several weeks ago after he had issued a statement from his prison cell saying that he had been "double-crossed" by the last time and was ready to tell "all."

The statute of limitations does not apply, the grand jury held, for the reason that the men concealed the facts concerning the purported bribe.

All Under Bond.

All indicted men were under bond tonight, having surrendered, themselves to the sheriff within a few hours after they had been informed of the grand jury's action.

"I want to be arrested," Governor Jackson told sheriff Omar Hawkins, as he entered his office. A bond of $2,- 500 was provided immediately. The governor, as well as the others, declined to make a statement.

McCray was tried in the county court but not convicted. He later was convicted in federal court of con-

NOVELIST'S JURY STILL INCOMPLETE

Rockville, Conn., September 9.—(P)—Leonard Lanson Cline, novelist, was returned to the Tolland county jail late today with the jury, which is to try him for the killing of Wilfred Irwin, still incomplete.

Several veniremen who said they "did not believe in capital punishment in this case" were disqualified, but the outspoken opinion of these residents of the county in which Cline recently has made his home appeared to hearten the defendant.

The battling of opposing counsel sharpened today, the third day of the trial, and Judge Edward M. Yonans, who is presiding, materially narrowed the grounds on which he would excuse the veniremen. Only one acceptable venireman appeared, however, among the 37 on hand today.

The lone juror selected today was Philip J. Goodman, 38, a farmer of Andover. He became juror number ten.

A new panel of forty will appear next Tuesday, when court reconvenes after the week-end adjournment.

Mrs. John S. Wierenga, Cline's sister, today received a telegram from Mayor John W. Smith, of Detroit, Mich., who knew Cline while the latter was employed on a Detroit newspaper, saying that he was unable to come here Friday (today), but would come later if needed as a character witness. Cline's counsel indicated today, however, that no character witnesses would be summoned, at present, at least.

Dredge Worker Comes to Life Loses Flowers

(By Leased Wire to The Constitution.)

Chicago, September 9.—Because Thomas Donlen declined to remain dead he lost the beautiful flowers his fellow workers had purchased to decorate his casket. Donlen is an employee of the Central Dredging company. A line of men were filing past the timekeeper this morning, the latter suddenly threw up his hands when Donlen appeared.

"Why—why—aren't you dead?" he gasped.

"Who, me? Not on your life!" he responded.

Without another word the timekeeper turned to a telephone and called a florist, telling him to cancel the order for a fine floral broken arch and a cross.

"Never mind making them up," he explained. "The guy ain't dead."

Donlen had failed to report for work for two days and a friend told his companions that he was dead. Later today Donlen hunted up his friend and swung heavily on him with his right. "Ye have no sense," retorted the friend. "If ye had stayed home today ye'd be ahead a fine bunch of flowers. What I should told 'em was ye were dead drunk."

EXTENSION OF FLORIDA TOURIST RATES SOUGHT

John T. Alsop, Jr., mayor of Jacksonville, accompanied by Jerry Carter, state hotel commissioner, and R. K. Christensen, assistant commissioner, arrived in Atlanta Friday to promote a move to set aside a twelve-week period in Florida—six weeks just as the regular tourist season ends and six weeks just prior to its opening—to give the American tourist additional opportunity to visit the "Sunshine State."

The delegation petitioned the Southern Tariff association for an extension of special railroad rates and a decision, the Floridians say, is expected in about two weeks.

The extension of the season, if the move to do so is successful, will be attended by special rates and the best possible service in the selection of routes and resorts suitable to every pocketbook.

E. P. Owen, of the Jacksonville Chamber of Commerce, is another member of the Florida party, which registered at the Ansley hotel for a visit of several days in Atlanta.

"Georgia and Florida flourish together," Mr. Owen said. Although no specific data was given, he declared that "Atlanta should make several thousand dollars each day of the season from the million and a quarter of sun-followers moving through Georgia to the winter resorts so numerous just south of the St. Marys river."

"Every Florida-bound tourist is an asset to Georgia," he continued, "and there will be plenty of them this year when the mercury huddles on the bulb way up north."

Additional revenues accrue at distribution points, such as Atlanta, for the trade expands with the increase in consumption just south of the Georgia state line. Your wholesale and jobbing houses are bound to pile up nice profit from this source, and as for the hotels—well, let's pull together."

CONGREGATIONAL PULPIT IS FILLED BY REV. JUNIPER

The Rev. Kerrison Juniper, pastor of the Congregational church of St. Petersburg, Fla., is in Atlanta and is filling the pulpit at the Central Congregational church.

While in the city he has been arranging with S. Russell Bridges, president of the Southern Musical bureau of Atlanta, for the Yvonne course which is staged annually at the St. Petersburg church.

Dr. Juniper is a strong advocate of church advertising. His lectures on this subject have been given before the conventions of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World and have been widely distributed. He believes that the church is the greatest business in the world and that its message should not only go forth from the pulpit, but by thoughtfully prepared paid advertisements in order to reach the general public.

His religious activities have extended into South Africa, Australia, Canada and his own country, England.

He has filled numerous requests for his most popular sermon, "Let's Go Fishing." Sunday he will preach at the Central Congregational church on "Worshiping the Unseen."

Always a Pleasure to Serve

Western Farewell Given President by Rapid City

Rapid City, S. D., September 9.—(AP)—The Black Hills, having demonstrated an old-time hospitality, sends President Coolidge back to Washington tonight with his own assurance that he has had a "very pleasant, a very wonderful time."

After three months in the west, during which he has come into closer contact with the people of this area than any president before him, Mr. Coolidge turned back to the nation's capital hopeful that hereafter it will be increasingly practicable for presidents to see at first-hand the needs and requirements of the country's different sections.

The people of the Black Hills said goodbye to him in a truly western fashion, gathering for an immense demonstration that seemed even more enthusiastic than their welcome many weeks ago. They closed every shop, office, mill and factory, hung out flags and brought out their band and they heard in return from the president the longest informal speech he had made since entering the white house, in appreciation of their hospitality.

Act Today! Get Protection From Wave of Accidents

"Never put off until tomorrow what you can do today."

That was a favorite maxim of Benjamin Franklin, who doubtless would have made the admonition much stronger had the procrastination involved a service or duty.

It is your solemn duty to protect your loved ones—those who are dependent upon you for security in life—against emergencies that may disable you and make you a burden rather than a comfort.

The accident wave—which daily grows stronger and claims more victims—is an actual menace to your life and your health. Are you protected against its mounting hazards? In justice to yourself and your family you should be.

In this connection, remember that The Constitution offers you the famous $7,500 travel accident policy insured by the North American Insurance Company, of Chicago. This old and reliable concern already has paid more than $33,000 in claims to Constitution policyholders.

The policy, which costs only $1.25 per year, provides for payment of sums ranging downward from $7,500 in case of death resulting from certain accidents; heavy cash payment for permanent injuries and $10 weekly indemnity for disability resulting from sums ranging downward from $7,500 in case of death resulting from certain accidents; heavy cash payment for permanent injuries and $10 weekly indemnity for disability resulting from sums ranging downward from $7,500 in case of death resulting from certain accidents.

A train wreck, a crash of automobiles, the speeding wheels of an on-rushing car or a burning building may leave you a victim of the ever-growing wave of accidents today.

In this paper appear regular advertisements supplying full details of the great offer. Watch for them.

One who is now taking The Daily and Sunday Constitution or will subscribe for same through carrier in Atlanta or suburbs, through an out-of-town carrier or dealer, paying for his paper weekly, monthly or otherwise, is a subscriber and is eligible.

Those taking The Daily and Sunday Constitution by mail, either through a postoffice or rural route delivery for one year, are eligible by paying $1.25 per year per policy above the subscription price.

In sending applications for insurance the applicant must state name in full, give age and occupation. If beneficiary is desired, full Christian name must be given and relation of same to the insured.

LIPTON RESIGNS CHAIRMANSHIP OF TEA COMPANY

(Copyright, 1927, by The Constitution and The Chicago Tribune.)

London, September 8.—Sir Thomas Lipton, the veteran tea king and founder of the Lipton Tea company, has resigned his chairmanship. He was succeeded by Sir John Ferguson, the present executive chairman.

One of the most delightful things experienced in this business is the contact we have with men and boys who take pride in their personal appearance. It denotes good breeding, also a mark of good taste.

It is refreshing to see a person exacting about the fit of his clothes and critical of styles and colors, because it pleases us immensely to know that we are able to satisfy those who are so very fastidious.

It costs not a penny more to exercise good taste in dress than it does to be indifferent to such niceties.

First Woman State Senator

MRS. L. F. JOHNSON.

Herewith is shown the first picture printed of Georgia's first woman to be elected state senator, Mrs. L. F. Johnson, of Watkinsville, who has been named to succeed her husband, the late Senator Johnson, of the 27th district, composed of Oconee, Barrow and Walton counties. Senator Johnson died during the last session of the legislature. After Senator Johnson's death friends of his and Mrs. Johnson insisted upon his widow becoming a candidate to succeed her husband. She was reluctant to enter a political race, but acceded to the requests and announced for the election that was held on September 3. She had no opposition. Mrs. Johnson before her marriage was Miss Maggie Bradberry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walton Bradberry, prominent family of Oconee county. She has three children, the eldest Miss Mildred Johnson, and two sons, Ferdinand and J. W. Since Mr. Johnson's death she has been editing the Oconee Enterprise, formerly edited by her husband.

TWO MURDER TRIALS SET FOR SEPT. 19 WEEK

Two murder cases are scheduled for trial during the week of September 19, according to the calendar just completed by the solicitor general's staff. A total of 67 cases have been set for the four-day grind during the week.

Tom Gibby and J. C. Garrett will be tried on September 20 before Judge John D. Humphries for the murder of J. C. Thwaites, while Ella Gordon, negro, will face murder charges on the same day before Judge E. D. Thomas.

The first week of the September term will be devoted to clearing the docket of jail cases. Several interesting cases have been set for the week, including the trial of Emory Smith, charged with robbery. Smith is alleged to have been a member of a gang of four men who robbed and shot a bookkeeper at the office of the Eagle Oil company. The other three members of the gang have been tried and convicted, but Smith was just recently arrested in Miami.

SERIES OF PETTY THEFTS KEEP POLICE ON JUMP

Police were busy Friday running down a series of petty robberies reported at headquarters during the day.

Narrators cut the telephone wire at Sol Epstein's residence, 656 Seminole avenue, entered, and made off with a wrist watch and $6 in currency. Occupants of the house were unable to summon aid, police were told.

Two negroes, brandishing revolvers, held up and robbed C. A. Clay, 305 Franklin avenue, of his pocket change. His assailants appeared as he stepped from a street car near his home, he said.

The J. M. Pinsky Dry Goods store, at 45 Georgia avenue, was robbed of several pairs of shoes, the proprietor reported.

The Australian ballot system was used and the election was held under a charter amendment granted the city of Acworth by the legislature at the recent session.

Adair & Senter SUES FOR $130,000

Suits seeking the recovery of $100,000 from the Citizens and Southern National bank and $30,000 from the Atlanta and Lowry National bank were filed Friday in Fulton superior court by W. D. Hoffman, trustee for Adair and Senter, Inc., bankrupt construction firm.

The suits also claim seven per cent interest on the money from December 1, 1920. Mr. Hoffman alleges that when the Adair Realty and Trust company bankruptcy and the Adair and Senter bankruptcy came about, that the assets of the latter firm were transferred to the realty and trust company to secure $300,000 of indebtedness.

The realty and trust company then paid $100,000 to the Citizens and Southern and $30,000 to the Atlanta and Lowry to liquidate notes of Adair and Senter, the petition alleges. The claimant charges, however, that the transfer was void, and that Adair and Senter was not divested of title to the money. Winfield P. Jones and Dean and Wright filed the petitions for Mr. Hoffman.

RACIAL INTEGRITY
BILL LACKS FUNDS;
RULED WORTHLESS

Enforcement of the racial integrity bill passed by the legislature at its recent session, will not be possible until the legislature meets again and provides appropriations to meet the expenses incurred in the enforcement of the new law, according to a ruling made Friday by T. R. Gress, assistant attorney general. The ruling was made at the request of the state department of health.

On examination of the provisions of the bill which require the registration of all people of the state for classification as to race and color, it was found that more than $300,000 would be necessary to paying the expenses of the clerk needed to carry out this task. The board of health asked the attorney general for a ruling and this ruling will be the guide of the board unless the supreme court reverses the ruling of the assistant attorney general.

Attorney Judson Andrews on Friday asked police to hunt two negroes who, he said, entered his office asking legal advice and left with $12.50 of his cash.

The negroes asked advice concerning the recovery of a automobile. A retainer's fee of $12.50 was mentioned, whereupon one of the visitors drew a check for $25 and pocketed the difference, according to the attorney. He is still looking for his clients.

INVITING PUBLIC REBELLION.

On this page is a communication from John Sizoo, divisional cashier of the American Express company—the largest carrier service of its class in the world—referring to a recent editorial in The Constitution as to the dangerous ground upon which public carriers are treading in continually appealing for higher freight tariffs.

Reference was made to the Esch-Cummings law, known as the "transportation act of 1920," and Mr. Sizoo calls attention to the fact that while the law does not guarantee a specific earning it does "permit" the roads "to earn 5-3-4 per cent upon the value of the property used in operation."

This is stating the case much more strongly than in The Constitution editorial, and it accentuates again the mistake the transportation companies are making in inviting a possible public rebellion against increasing freight rates, and at the same time in inviting an unfortunate political barrage of prejudice such as engulfed the nation 25 years ago to the detriment of the carriers, and of public interests generally.

There is being conducted a vigorous campaign by the major railroads, before the interstate commerce commission, for a revaluation upwards of operating carrier property. As Mr. Sizoo has stated, the earning minimum as permitted is based on valuations, and any increase in these valuations would necessarily increase freight rates automatically to that extent. For, though we call the provision of the Esch-Cummings law a "permission" rather than a guarantee, it is a matter of record that the commission permitted an increase in freight rates so that the minimum cited in the law could be based upon the revenue freight statistics of the carriers—earned by all of the major carriers. Therefore, while a "permission" with no limitation, as Mr. Sizoo has made clear, and which is a stronger position than a mere guarantee, it is also a guarantee in effect, based upon operating valuations, with tariffs adjusted to conform.

The freight carriers should be encouraged, and they should make reasonable dividends for their stockholders, but the point we make, and again emphasize, is that they are provoking a situation—at a time when their earnings are heavy, their securities soaring, their tonnage at the peak—that may result disastrously to them, and to national, state and community welfare.

There is a limit to public patience, and the public is getting weary of the continuous and everlasting edging-up in the charges imposed.

The old 50 per cent Pullman surtax was imposed against the traveling public as a temporary subsidy to enable the roads to quickly rehabilitate after the war. It should have been lifted long ago.

It is there yet, every dollar going to the railroads in excess of the regular passenger and Pullman rates.

This is one illustration of a situation that invites public rebellion.

SCHOOL DAYS IN GEORGIA.
Schools have already opened in many of the cities and towns and rural districts of Georgia. In another week they will practically all be open.

Reports from those opened are to the effect that all previous attendance records are being broken. That will be true in Atlanta, judging from the registrations to date.

It is expected that the higher institutions will show the same ratio of increase in the "knocks at the doors." The trouble is the state institutions are already crowded of the old students who have not yet completed their courses return in usual proportions. About the only opportunities for new applicants will be the vacancies created by the 1927 graduating classes. It is encouraging to know that most of these institutions will have larger

War On Love.

A bolshevik saint, M. Zalkind, has declared war on... Love. M. Zalkind's motives are perhaps a little original. It appears that love is one of the evil growths of capitalism. Nature, he says, does not occupy itself with love. Only with propagation of the species. Nature solely must be obeyed, according to the bolshevik gentleman. This latter doctrine may not seem logical, for if we obey Nature instead of love, we follow orders just the same. It is like changing the order of the alphabet. When Voltaire read Jean-Jacques Rousseau he said he felt an inclination to go on hands and knees and bubble grass. Reading M. Zalkind's dicta, one might be pardoned to clamber up the park trees and throw coconuts on the heads of policemen. Sex appeal, nothing more, was part of the primitive mode of life. Love came with civilization, the bolshevik professor seems to forget this. Even while he utters his sensational psychological "discovery," he mocks him, as is attested by the Moscow burning of statistics figures which show that workmen in love or newly married are the most efficient.

School days are happy days. But they are more. In moulding the future usefulness, not only for themselves, but for the welfare of the state and nation, and for the development of industry, the carrying on of business, the progress of the professions, they are the most important days in the lives of the young.

SOUTH CLAIMS THEM NEXT.

President and Mrs. Coolidge's departure from the summer capital in the Dakota Black Hills was naturally the occasion for a noisy farewell demonstration.

For the first time in history a chief executive chose the wilds of the northwest, in the heart of the cowboy and the Indian country, for a vacation home, and the natives appreciated it.

Furthermore President Coolidge assimilated the habits and customs of the country, joined in with the rodeo and other outdoor entertainments, even stood patiently before the battery of cameras in Indian costume, and in other ways endeared himself to the people.

Mrs. Coolidge did her part with equal tact. They both demonstrated again a characteristic which is inherent, that though subscribers to the party faith of the republicans they belong to the great democratic masses.

A degree of doctor of science will be conferred upon the president at the South Dakota State college today. So, after his term of office expires, provided the party doesn't "choose" to draft him for another nomination, he will be known as "Dr. Coolidge." That will sound well to his old neighbors in the Vermont hills, and in Massachusetts.

In the meantime, whatever may be the results of the next republican convention, President Coolidge will have at least one more summer vacation period.

Now that he has favored the west with such a visitation the invitation is cordially extended to him to spend the next vacation in the south.

There is no more delightful summer climate than in the southern Appalachian range. In the Georgia mountains there is not a night in summer that a blanket is not comfortable, and most of the time it is necessary.

And fishing? Why, the lakes of northeast Georgia, and the many rivers and streams that traverse all of the mountain areas, simply abound with bass and trout and brook.

Nothing would please the president more, judging from his summer in the west, than to wade out on the rocks in a mountain stream and hook a school of rainbows.

And then it would be so easy to come to Atlanta occasionally and go to the show. It would permit Mrs. Coolidge to do her shopping in some of the greatest department stores and specialty shops in the country.

The south will claim them for the vacation in 1928—and Georgia will be in the procession when the contest starts.

LOOKING AND LISTENING

BY SAM W. SMALL

The Senate Will Seat Smith and Vane in Defense of State Rights.

A striking sign of the times in political and press discussions is the increasing demand for the revival of state rights.

Serious students of the politics of the era are becoming more than ever concerned over the strong drive of the policy of centralization, with the consequent loss of state autonomy and authority.

Just here the distinction must be emphasized between the doctrines of "state rights" and "state sovereignty." Those who read more deeply in the ancient than the modern history of the republic have these doctrines much entangled. Our "ancient history" is that which preceded the war between the states and our "modern history" is that which has followed since that great affair, and is still evolving.

No man of any political sanity now advocates, or would see as a militant, the theory that a state is only a voluntary confederate in the American union and that it has the sovereign right to nullify the acts of the union or to withdraw at will from the perpetual compact of the constitution.

The True State Rights Doctrine.
The old theory of state sovereignty, that first appeared in the Virginia and Kentucky resolutions of 1792 and 1798, and was afterwards crystallized in a peculiarly southern political creed by John C. Calhoun and his followers, was sunk in blood, "spurious verisimilitude," by the surrender at Appomattox on the 9th of April, 1865.

Since then it has been accepted as a stabilized American doctrine that the federal government is paramount within the delegations of power made to it in the constitution and all other powers not therein allocated to the general government are reserved to the states, or to the people.

Questions are constantly arising in the legislation and administration of both the federal and state governments as to whether a particular power belongs to the one or the other, or is concurrent.

It is claimed by many interpreters of the constitution that some of our executives and the congress have assumed, or usurped, powers not enumerated in the constitution, and undertaken functions that were never intended to be operated federally, and thereby have invaded the jurisdictions of the states and robbed them of rights which the states only should exercise and which are expressly reserved to them by the constitution.

The Smith-Vare Case in Point.
The discussion of state rights is sure to reach elaborate and meticulous discussion whenever the national senate is reconvened.

It has before it the cases of Frank L. Smith, senator-elect from Illinois, and of William S. Vare, senator-elect from Pennsylvania.

In both their cases it has been charged, proven, even admitted, that inordinate sums of money were expended for each of them, in both the primary elections that nominated them and in the elections proper in which they received their majorities.

As the result of a senate investigation of the states and congress have assumed, or usurped, powers not enumerated in the constitution, and undertaken functions that were never intended to be operated federally, and thereby have invaded the jurisdictions of the states and robbed them of rights which the states only should exercise and which are expressly reserved to them by the constitution.

Houston Tax Rate Shows 2 Decrease.
Perry, Ga., September 9.—(Special.)—The commissioners of roads and revenues of Houston county have fixed the rate of taxes for the county for this year at 16 mills, including interest on the sinking fund on bonds, and in addition to this a county-wide school tax of 3 mills, and in the Perry consolidated school district 9 mills for maintenance and school bonds, which, with the state tax of 5 mills, making a total of 35 mills, or $35 on the thousand of tax valuations.

brought here in an automobile to submit to interrogation by officials. Miss Atkinson attended the minister's wife and Mary Jane Bailey, 18, who died yesterday. The nurse was taken into custody last night after letters exchanged between her and the pastor and a package bearing a poison label had been found in her room.

Several of the minister's children, because seriously ill recently while Miss Atkinson was at the Bailey home. All recovered, however, except Mary Jane. Mrs. Bailey died August 27.

Mr. Bailey went to Colorado several days ago to take one of his younger children to the home of a relative.

The minister recently brought his family here from Gainesville, Texas. Miss Atkinson was acquainted with the Bailey family in Texas. Shortly after the Baileys came to Enid, the nurse followed and for a time lived at the Bailey home. Last Saturday she was requested by Mr. Bailey to move, and the same evening she called members of the Bailey family and told them she was going to end her life.

The nurse again attended members of the family.

Health Talks

BY DR. WILLIAM READE.

THE FASHIONABLE TINTS IN ANTISEPTICS.

People will have their plagues. Show me an antiseptic that is without impressive odor or startling color and I'll show you one that would never achieve any great degree of popularity.

Such popularity as corrosive sublimate (bichloride of mercury) had in years past was largely due to the whimsical practice of coloring the tablets blue with sufficient inert dye to give otherwise colorless solutions in water a blue color. Of course this was intended to prevent mistakes and poisoning, but the blue color itself carried a suggestion of strength, and therefore many laymen as well as physicians entertained an unwarranted fancy that corrosive sublimate was a "powerful antiseptic" when in fact it was an inferior antiseptic, in actual practice, and only a powerful and dangerous poison.

I myself left the hospital and entered upon private practice with some such foot note about this then indispensable antiseptic. And I had my lesson.

I gave some corrosive sublimate tablets to a patient to prepare a solution for bathing a wound. The patient went from my office to the nearest bar and asked for a glass of water—such a strange order that the bartender was curious to see what he was to do with it.

He dropped a tablet in the water, making a beautiful blue liquid, and was actually about to drink the poison when I happened to stop by. I saw the plenty of real fatalities, horrible tragedies, have occurred from just such mistakes as that, enough, it seems to me, to warrant rigid legal restrictions upon the sale or possession of this poison by the laity. Some people keep bichloride of mercury in the house, and now and again we read of dreadful mistakes such as mistaking a deadly tablet for a headache tablet.

Boric acid, as I now know, will accomplish every good purpose that bichloride of mercury (corrosive sublimate) can serve, and boric acid, a hard thing to poison anybody with or even to do any injury with.

So I prefer the simple old tincture of iodine for first-aid treatment, and if any antiseptic is necessary in the subsequent care of the wound I prefer boric acid.

The dull brown color iodine imparts to the skin or clothing looks just as good to me as the brilliant shade of mercurchrome stain.

questioning the legal authority of the board to take its action.

A prediction by Senator Borah, re-elected from Idaho, that a big movement against the federal reserve system is impending.

It was learned definitely that Charles S. Hamlin, of Massachusetts, who was the first governor of the federal reserve board, and Edmund Platt, of New York, present vice governor, were two of the three who proposed the action.

Mr. Hamlin and Mr. Miller have been associated with the affairs of the board since its early days, and Mr. Platt, who was appointed later, was familiar with the events leading up to the framing of the law as a member of the house committee on banking.

"I voted as I did because I do not believe that the board has any right under the law to initiate rates," said Mr. Platt.

The four other members of the board who were present at the meeting at which action was taken were George R. Jones, of Ohio, a democrat, appointed by the late President Harding; Edward H. Cunningham, of Iowa, a "dirt farmer" member; George W. Jones, of Illinois, controller of the currency and ex-officio member of the board.

Ladies May Change a Little, But Man's Nature Doesn't

By Robert Kullen

Twenty-five years ago woman was on a pedestal. She was courted in fear and trembling, and man felt that he had won a victory when he obtained the privilege of "calling." Man was the supplicant and woman stood aloof.

Human nature hasn't changed, but the relative position of the sexes has.

The modern youngster thinks he is doing a favor when he asks a girl for a "date," and if one turns her down there are others who whom he can turn. He is the courted one, the sought after. And the inevitable result is that he feels independent and cocksure, and values young ladies very little.

It always happens that way. It isn't in human nature to value highly anything easily got.

Consider now the husband who is undomesticated. He has a lady friend who is called a "sweetie" and he buys her playthings and pretties with money he should be spending on his wife.

His wife, if she suspects anything, is jealous. She hates the other woman and she is furious with her husband. Her man loves another!

But he doesn't—not that kind of woman—not if he is a normal man. He is, perhaps, what is called "infatuated." That is, his vanity is tickled and he delights in the fact of doing something he shouldn't be doing.

But his secret thoughts concerning this "sweetie" are about as follows: "She is a good sport to play around with, but she knows I'm married. Nice kid, of course, but hardly the kind I'd want my wife to know."

And when a show-down comes, if one does come before he and the lady fire of one another, he goes straight to his wife with his mouth full of confessions and pleadings and tells the other lady to go her primping way.

This is a hard-boiled and sophisticated age, but now as always man delights in the fact that his own wife is good and low rates all feminine creatures whose favors are too easily obtained.

If he knows she has been kissed before, and doesn't care, who can bet your last dollar that he doesn't love her.

YOUR BOY AND YOUR GIRL

BY ARTHUR DEAN, SC. D.

A CAR AND A GIRL.
"Dear Mr. Arthur Dean:
"My son, a boy of 18 and 15 years. Their father was killed in a horrible accident five years ago and I've tried to be father as well as mother.

"The older boy was always an exceptional boy, old for his age, saving, an" would prefer to work than play. He liked swimming better than other sports, was studious in school, not brilliant in any way but he seemed to master whatever he undertook.

"Two years ago my older son left high school, against my wishes, and worked in the factory where his father was killed. He earned almost $30 then and was only 16 years old. He made good and has done a man's work ever since. After four months of working hard he was laid off, and he came home with his money and bought a car. I consented to his getting a used Ford, thinking we could all enjoy it, and the planned happy excursions but they fell flat.

"With the car, the next was a girl. Now home is just a place to come to sleep and eat. The girl he is keeping company with is a nice girl, but she thinks a great deal of him, but her family are not very desirable. I've talked and pleaded and reasoned but still goes out every night and he comes home with a girl's make-up on his face. I've tried to get him to stop, but he won't. He's got to go with the girl so much.

"What am I to do? I work in a factory and am trying to keep house and my older son is wrapped up in my husband, home and children. If my boys turn from me it just seems like nothing to live for, for my whole life is wrapped up in them.

"The younger boy is very different from his brother. He is the most kind and loving little fellow you can imagine.

centralizing banking institution. But the whole crux of the federal reserve banks is in the redemptive rate. If the rate is raised, the banks will be made up of political appointees, can dictate the discount rate of the individual federal reserve banks, the very foundations of the system are undermined. Washington politicians will control the banks, rather than the best banking and business brains of the various districts.

The question by the federal reserve board that the redemptive rate was reduced partly to aid the farmer in moving crops and to enable Europe to buy more of our exports, and the products, is pronounced "poppycock" by western bankers, who say:

"The redemptive rates in the United States were reduced to aid Europe. This is the long and short of it. Why try to camouflage it? Why not admit the truth, that the only cause in the United States to profit by the reduced rates is the farmer. The farmer will not buy one bushel more of what it actually needs, and it will buy what it needs whether money rates were there are high or low. Why not let Frank and truthful about the matter?"

DUPONT EXPLAINS STOCK PURCHASE

Wilmington, Del., September 9.—(AP)—Declaring that the E. I. DuPont de Nemours company's purchase of $24,000,000 worth of the stock of the United States Steel corporation carries with it no obligation to participate in the management of the Steel corporation through directorships or otherwise, Irene DuPont, chairman of the finance committee of the DuPont company, has sent a letter to Colonel William Donovan, of the department of justice.

The letter is answer to an inquiry made by Colonel Donovan with respect to the purchase of the DuPont company and its relationship with the General Motors corporation and the United States Steel corporation. A copy of the letter has also been sent to the federal trade commission, which on July 29 notified the DuPont company that it had directed their chief economist to investigate the relationship between the three corporations. This letter also gives details of these relationships which will also be sent to the stockholders of the DuPont company.

In the final portion of his letter, Mr. DuPont declared that the purchase of stock of the DuPont company by General Motors and the United States Steel corporation was an investment in the company, and that no director, officer or employee of the company is an officer, director or employee of the Steel corporation. The stock is subject to resale at any time at a moment's notice.

CHINAMAN SUES

Charges Author Maligned His Foster-Daughter.

Chicago, September 9.—(AP)—Mong Wong Chi, Chinese of New York, today filed suit for $50,000 damages in circuit court here against Harry Stephen Keeler, novelist, charging that the author in a novel called "Find the Plot" maligned his foster daughter by casting her in the role of the immoral heroine.

The bill said that the novelist met the plaintiff's adopted daughter in Paris, where the plot of his novel was laid, and promised to cast her in the part of heroine of his next novel. The description of the appearance of his foster daughter, said the Chinese, is so faithful as to have been readily recognized by his friends.

Warm and Dry Is Prediction Of Forecaster

The bright blue of September skies, beneath which Dixie's cotton fields are breaking into bloom, will continue unmarred by rain clouds for the next few days, C. F. von Herrmann, meteorologist, believes.

September ushered in a dry spell that has held for nine days and shows no sign of termination. Recurrent days of brilliant sunshine have held the thermometer here at a figure 5 degrees on the top of normal, while the month's rainfall so far registers a scant .06 of an inch at the Atlanta weather bureau.

This, however, is no record, says Mr. von Herrmann, recalling an August of 1925 that brought but .02 to parched hills and lowlands of the state.

Friday's thermometer set a low mark of 69 and climbed to 86 during the mid-afternoon. An approximation of these extremes is to be expected today.

While late truck farmers and others contemplating fall cereal crops are suffering some inconvenience from the dry weather, cotton planters are smiling pretty, meteorologically speaking.

The old law of averages gives September 3.2 inches of rain. Jupiter Pluvius will have to get busy if he is going to hit that schedule.

$23,405 SUBSCRIBED TO MASONIC FUND

Decatur, Ga., September 9.—(Special.)—The Decatur Masonic temple debt clearing campaign committee gave its first report tonight which showed that a total of $23,405 had been subscribed to the $50,000 fund sought, in the first two days of canvassing by the teams composing 100 persons.

The committee is greatly encouraged that more than one-third of the fund sought was obtained in two days of canvassing.

The teams were entertained tonight at a supper in the new Chandler hotel, the business session of which was presided over by Mayor Scott Chandler.

The team of which E. M. Sanders is captain was awarded the cup tonight for reporting the largest number of subscriptions and also the largest amount subscribed.

It was announced tonight that the next meeting will be held Monday evening at 7:15 o'clock in the Decatur Woman's club building.

The campaign extends from September 7 to the 14th.

GIRL RED GIVEN $100 FINE, COSTS, AS "LITTLE LESSON"

Chicago, September 9.—(AP)—By way of giving her "a little lesson" that may stop her from fighting, Judge William R. Feltzer today assessed a fine of $100 and costs against Aurora D'Angelo, the 18-year-old high school girl who led hundreds of men and women in two recent Sacco-Vanzetti demonstrations.

The girl was placed on six months' probation, however, as were three others arrested with her, George Maurer, Henry Vranzic and Harry Kelly.

Fifteen others arraigned with them were discharged.

A jury trial on a charge of disorderly conduct is pending against Aurora.

AGREEMENT SEEN ON COAL STRIKE TIEUP IN ILLINOIS

Chicago, September 9.—(AP)—Week-end of arguments will bring all factions in the Illinois coal tie-up into agreement on the basis of a settlement of the dispute which has paralyzed the industry since April 1, leaders in both camps anticipate.

Both the miners' and operators' representatives on the sub-committee of four named by a wage conference to argue a settlement along economic lines advised their constituents today that they had made some progress.

George B. Harrington, one of the operators' two sub-committee members, said they expected to make a definite report Monday but declined to say whether it would be favorable or unfavorable to a settlement.

27,000 LEGIONNAIRES EXPECTED IN PARIS

Paris, September 9.—(AP)—Eight thousand American legionnaires now camped in Europe, 12,000 are on the high seas and 7,000 are awaiting shipping accommodations at New York, Boston and Montreal, insuring the presence of 27,000 when the congress opens September 19. This number surpasses by several thousand the total the legion had expected to bring to Paris.

Never before has the Paris municipal council made such elaborate arrangements to welcome guests, the decorations surpassing even those made for the Victory parade July 14, 1919, and the opening day of the convention is still 10 days away.

A Eiffel Tower will be a blaze of light. Along the Champs Elysees electric bulbs six inches apart from Arce de Triomphe to Place Concorde will resemble Broadway on a hectic night.

One hundred thousand electric lights varying from 50 to 100-candlepower, turning night into day, will assist the legionnaires to find their way through Paris at night, the parade breaks.

Thus far the legionnaires have been received enthusiastically everywhere. The much-advertised offensive by the French against the parade seems to have been pipped in the bud.

The "boys" unassuming, quiet behavior has endeared them to the French people and they are being a part of the happy French family of 1927 as they did in 1917.

"The uniform alone has changed, the hearts remain alike," said an aged Frenchman today as he watched a dozen legionnaires march along. "We like them just as much in multi as we did when they wore khaki."

DAWES STRESSES PARADE SOLEMNITY.

New York, September 9.—(AP)—Reminiscence of the solemnity that will attend their march through the streets of Paris in memory of their dead comrades of the allied forces was given members of the American Legion by Vice President Charles G. Dawes tonight in an address at the farewell dinner to the legion's Paris convention delegation on board the U. S. S. Leviathan.

"Remember as you march that you will revive in the minds of the immense throng the thoughts of their dead who would so gladly have marched with you," Dawes said. "Tens of thousands of people will watch you through their tears. Remember as you march that your comrades who died to give you victory are by your side in spirit."

"Looking upon you then will be the members of French families from which went out 1,324,000 young Frenchmen to their death. The war casualties of France, including the dead, were about 15 per cent of her population. If ours had been in the same proportion their dead would have amounted to nearly 17,000,000. To nearly every French family the war brought a tragedy."

The injured include Bell, his wife, an 8-month-old daughter, Carolyn, and Mrs. M. M. Bell, 60, of Griffin. Mr. Bell's mother, all occupants of the Bell machine.

According to police reports, Bell was driving south on Stewart avenue and when he approached the Mayland avenue intersection, a produce truck, driven by an unidentified negro, failed to stop, and crashed into his coupe. Both the truck and the coupe are said to have overturned, the occupants being hurled onto the ground. The driver of the truck fled from the scene before his identity was established.

The injuries received by members of the Bell family were only minor ones, according to police.

U. S. TREASURY OFFER IS OVERSUBSCRIBED

Washington, September 9.—(AP)—Cash subscriptions for the recent $500,000,000 offering of 3 per cent treasury certificates and 3 1/2 per cent treasury notes, were in excess of $1,070,000,000. Secretary Mellon announced today. The subscription books were closed Wednesday to cash subscriptions but the offering of treasury notes will remain open for exchange of second Liberty 4 1/4 per cent bonds. Probably until September 29.

The offerings of treasury certificates maturing March 15, 1928, amounted to $250,000,000 and was over subscribed by $330,000,000. The 3 1/2 per cent treasury notes, of which the offering was $250,000,000 was over subscribed $840,000,000.

Virginia Physician, Tried for Murder, Acquitted by Jury

Orange, Va., September 9.—(AP)—Dr. George Reavis, aged 60, of Orange county physician, was found not guilty here tonight by an Orange county jury of the murder of Gilbert Lacey on the night of March 2 in the front yard of the physician's home.

Dr. Reavis held that he fired his shotgun in frighten away a party of "drunken marauders," who would not quit his premises upon his repeated entreaties to do so. He testified that he feared bodily harm both for himself and his wife, as members of the party assumed a threatening attitude.

The commonwealth contended that Lacey went to the physician's home for medical aid and was killed as the outgrowth of a quarrel.

GIRL DROPS SUIT AGAINST COLLEGE

Gulfport, Miss., September 9.—(AP)—The damage suit for $75,000 filed in federal district court at Biloxi June 1 by Miss Marjorie Pearce, Birmingham, against Gulf Park college, was withdrawn today on motion of the plaintiff, it was learned here tonight.

The suit grew out of the expulsion of Miss Pearce from the school May 17, about two weeks before her class graduated. Her expulsion was caused by alleged improper conduct, it was said, at a fraternity dance.

Mrs. H. M. Pearce, of Birmingham, mother of Miss Pearce, filed the suit in behalf of her daughter, alleging that her daughter had been injured by the expulsion and accusations.

Neither attorneys for the defense nor the plaintiff would make a statement tonight, saying the court record must stand for itself.

Unanimity Marks Walker's Parley With Mussolini

MY JAMES J. WALKER Mayor of New York

Rome, September 9.—(AP)—I can understand without difficulty after talking with Mussolini for three-quarters of an hour that he has been the wonderfully successful man that the world recognizes.

Somewhat asked me how he was dressed. I must frankly say I did not notice. I do not know whether he wore a cutaway like mine or riding breeches. I only noticed his attractions from the chin up.

We discussed things in general. I enjoyed him immensely and hope he felt that he did not squander his time. Indeed he showed great interest in New York city. Our meeting was undoubtedly a most delightful occasion for me.

In substance I found him a man of great personal attraction, like all great men, a man of great strength and at the same time of great sympathy. Obviously he is a man of superior attainments. His outstanding success lies in the fact that he is a genuine humanitarian.

I do not believe it would be good form for me to repeat what he said, especially since when he wants to be quoted he knows how and where to do it.

In conclusion, while we were together there was no minority. There was only unanimity.

Heywood Broun Off Newspaper Work for Life

(By Leased Wire to The Constitution.) New York, September 9.—Heywood Broun, former columnist on the New York World, has definitely withdrawn from newspaper work, according to his statement in the current issue of The Nation, for which he is now writing a weekly page entitled "It Seems to Heywood Broun."

In reply to his friends who have urged him to go back to the World, which he believe is ready to forget the late disagreement over the Vanzetti case and in answer to others who have called him a fool and an idealist, Broun says:

"I'm not altogether a fool, and I haven't earned the other classification, either. By following the line of least resistance I came to be a personal journalist. Editors might be honest but they were never angry if I wrote about my fish, my child, or even my finger nails. But when something burns inside and that comes out, the situation's very different. Newspapers don't like their men to get mad about things. But for truth there is no dead-line."

"And so maybe in my heart I never was a newspaper man at all."

SWEET POTATOES ON SUNDAY MENU. TALMADGE ASKS

An appeal to all patriotic Georgians to use sweet potatoes on their tables as a part of their Sunday dinner was made Friday by Eugene Talmadge, commissioner of agriculture.

Mr. Talmadge asked that Georgians use the product so as to bring to a successful close Sweet Potato Week, which will be concluded Sunday, September 11. The week was officially designated by the state bureau of markets and the week, so far, has been very gratifying to state officials.

Atlanta retail grocers have reported large sales on the product and have expressed their desire to make Sweet Potato Week an annual affair.

Los Angeles, Calif., September 9. (United News.)—All motion pictures and vaudeville theaters in Los Angeles, and Hollywood may be closed Sunday unless a last-minute agreement is reached between the Musicians, Stage Hands and Motion Picture Operators unions and the Theater Owners' association.

RAH RAH! COHORTS INVADE ATLANTA RIALTO

And, lo, the ubiquitous college boy is in our midst. As big institutions of learning in and around north Georgia prepare to open for the fall term the streets of Atlanta are witnessing some fancy displays of big bottomed pants, pinstriped pipes, loud neckties, passionate shouts, acute coats of tan, multi-labeled suitcases, nobby knickers, defending sox, frat pins, hip flasks, headgears, striped sweaters, postage stamp caps and freshman haircuts.

The first sporadic choruses of "To Hell with Georgia!" and "To Hell with Tech," have been heard. Sedate sophomores are drilling fool freshmen in the new college yells. The Kelley pool players are chalking their cues. The ranches and boarding houses are being stormed. Pictures of the best girls, the next best girls and the rest of the girls are appearing on the mantels. And already some of the boys have written home for money.

Although there is hardly a tang of the fall in the air as yet the college tang is in the atmosphere all around the city. Groups of boys are giving other groups of boys the open rush for the open season for fraternity pledging and not one has yet made use of any loaded dice.

Soon the cool and shady campuses will be alive with raw material for the educational hoppers to grind out into the finished product. Professors are ready to spring their old crop of jokes. The co-eds have put in extra supplies of lipsticks and bloomers. The sheiks are compiling new lists of telephone numbers and are presenting letters of recommendation to the drive-it-yourself companies.

Plunking pig skins will be hurtling soon. The merry glees will be a-splashing, the banjos will thrum, the saxophones will whine and the semester will be a-semiterizing. There'll be a blithesome symphony of plunking, monkeying and flunking to mark the new college year.

If you don't believe this is going to be a big year for the collegiates just step down to Five Points, or to the Piedmont corner or to white way along Peachtree and catch an eye.

COOLIDGE ASKED FOR GAS REPORT

Richmond, Va., September 9.—(AP) Charging that the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey controls to a considerable degree the market price of gasoline in so far as dealers are concerned, Governor Harry F. Byrd today made public a letter with which he has written to President Coolidge in which he urged a report from the federal trade commission, which was instructed to make an investigation 18 months ago.

At that time Governor Byrd says, 35 governors requested the president to direct the federal trade commission to institute an investigation "with respect to the monopolistic control and arbitrary price fixing of the gasoline industry."

The governor makes the charge against the Standard Oil company because of a contract said to be made by a large company in Virginia, which is a competitor of the Standard Oil, in which there is a provision which says the company's price will be based on the official published tank wagon price of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey to take any general advance or decline of that price, he said. In the event that the Standard falls to publish a price, the contract is to become void, the contract, which the governor forwarded to President Coolidge, is said to state.

The governor further stated that he had been informed of similar provisions in the contracts of other companies which virtually means a control of prices by the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey.

40 YEARS GIVEN PHILLY BANDITS

Philadelphia, September 9.—(AP)—Forty to 80 years each was the sentence given today to Leo Fowler, a former Detroit policeman, and Edward Blackman, alias Ralph Dickerson, of Washington, D. C., convicted of holding up chain grocery stores in this city.

They were sentenced on three indictments charging robbery, assault and battery with intent to kill, carrying concealed deadly weapons and stealing an automobile. They were arrested less than a week ago.

Both men made confessions to detectives in which they said they first met in Detroit about June 15 last, stole an automobile and then toured the country, committing many holdups. They confessed a holdup in Baltimore, three in Tennessee at Bristol, Chattanooga and Knoxville, and the robbing of two gas stations at Enslay and Eastlake, near Birmingham.

Blackman admitted to Judge Harry S. McDevitt, who sentenced the men, that during the war he was convicted in Paris, for killing a policeman and was brought back to Fort Leavenworth to serve a life sentence. This sentence was commuted and finally he was paroled.

Both men admitted that a "Mrs. Blackman" had toured the country with them, but although she was a holdup being committed she did not participate in them.

HARDMAN DECLINES LEGION INVITATION

Governor L. G. Hardman will be unable to accept an invitation to attend the convention of the American Legion to be held in Paris this month, but sent his best wishes to the head of that organization Friday.

In a telegram to Howard P. Savage, national commander, Governor Hardman said:

"I greatly regret my inability to accept invitation to attend the annual convention of the American Legion at its national convention in Paris, September 19 to 23, inclusive. As the time for the departure of our organization from our beloved country is about to arrive, I want you to know that you have the good wishes of all patriotic Georgians. In the language of the French people whom you so nobly and valiantly supported and defended in 1917-18 we bid you bon voyage."

Baume's Law Principal Recommended by Grand Jury in DeKalb County

Decatur, Ga., September 10.—(Special).—Declaring that practically all county affairs, institutions and public buildings are in good shape, the DeKalb county grand jury adjourned today after being in session since Monday.

Principal among the recommendations returned was the one asking that the imposing of sentences in felony cases be vested in the judge of the court, rather than in the jury and that heavier sentences be given for repeated convictions. While the Baumes law was not mentioned, it is understood to have been in the mind of the jury in its recommendation.

The jury also recommended that young or first-offense criminals be kept separate from the more hardened convicts.

A. T. Crowe was appointed notary public and ex-officio justice of the peace in the 637th district and J. U. Cheek was named for the same office in the 524th district.

The criminal dockets of superior court will be taken up Monday morning, it was announced today, with Judge John H. Hutcherson presiding and Solicitor Claude Smith representing the state.

INDICTED

Another photograph of Indiana's governor, Ed Jackson, indicted yesterday following probe of alleged political corruption in his state.

GOVERNOR JACKSON OF INDIANA INDICTED

spiry to use the mails to defraud and sentenced to ten years' imprisonment. He was paroled from Atlanta federal prison several days ago. The true bill alleged that Jackson, Coffin and Marsh intimidated McCray into revealing the fact that an attempt had been made to bribe him through fear that they might interfere with McCray's obtaining a parole.

Charges Against Duvall.

Mayor Duvall was indicted on virtually the same charges as contained in an affidavit filed against him by the prosecuting attorney several weeks ago and on which he is scheduled to go to trial next Monday. The indictment alleged the mayor promised William H. Armitage, Indianapolis politician, the right to name men to city positions for his political support in the primary election of 1925.

Today's report was the result of an investigation into the political situation in Indiana that started early a year ago. The grand jury had not completed its work, it was indicated.

BY UNITED NEWS.

The governor's indictment was on a charge of conspiracy to bribe former Governor Warren T. McCray, who only a few days ago was paroled from the federal penitentiary at Atlanta where he had served three years and four months on a conviction of using the mails to defraud.

Mayor Duvall was charged with violating the corrupt practices act by failing to list a $14,500 campaign donation.

Just before the indictments were returned, it was learned, the grand jury, which has been considering charges that grew out of statements and documents of D. C. Stephenson, former Indiana Klan leader and once a political power, would continue in session indefinitely, and that other indictments may be left after.

The governor left his office in the statehouse today and went to the family residence. He was there, just returning from a vacation in northern Indiana, when the grand jury report was made.

None of those indicted was in the court room when the true bills were reported.

Governor Gives Bond.

About two hours after the grand jury reported, Governor Jackson surrendered to Sheriff Homer Hawkins at the latter's office. He was released on $2,500 bond.

Mayor Duvall, Coffin and Marsh also submitted to arrest. They, too, were released on bond.

The indictment against Governor Jackson said that Stephenson was associated with him and Marsh and Coffin. It said further, that these three men told McCray offering him a bribe that they "had the backing of the Ku Klux Klan of Indiana and that they were influential in said organization."

Governor Jackson, Coffin and Marsh were accused specifically of attempting to conceal that in December, 1925, McCray, then governor, was offered $10,000 to allow Coffin and others to name the Marion county prosecutor.

Climax Is Reached.

Thus, the sensational charges of scandal in Indiana's politics reached their climax.

Stephenson, who had been sentenced to life imprisonment for the murder of Madge Oberholzer, often had said he could reveal political scandal. It was believed he had turned against certain officials because he could not secure release from the state prison.

On July 25, the Indianapolis Times, a Scripps-Howard newspaper, printed a story charging that while McCray was governor, Jackson, then secretary of state, had carried to him the offer of $10,000 and a promise of immunity from prosecution (McCray was on the eve of indictment) if McCray would name a Marion county prosecutor agreeable to Coffin and other politicians. This was alleged to have happened in December, 1925, William P. Evans, McCray's son-in-law, preferred to quit rather than prosecute the governor on the indictments pending.

McCray, the Times said, refused the offer and William H. Rorer, the present prosecutor, was named.

Previously, the Times had printed a copy of a $2,500 check from Stephenson, apparently made to Jackson's order, bearing the notation it was part of a $10,000 contribution to Jackson's campaign for nomination. Jackson admitted receiving the check, but explained it was for a valuable saddle horse and equipment which he had sold to Stephenson and charged the former Klan leader with trying to "blackmail" his way out of prison.

Oklahoma City, Okla., September 9.—(AP)—A federal injunction restraining the Oklahoma corporation in the Seminole oil field has been set for October 5 in the district court at Muskogee, Okla.

The case is the first court test of the authority of the commission to act in preventing overproduction in the Seminole area.

"GET CAP STRAIGHT"
NEGRO ENJOINS
ON PRISON GIBBET

Baltimore, Md., September 9.—(AP)—Three negroes were hanged at the Maryland penitentiary for murder within 48 minutes, early today, recording the first triple hanging in the history of Baltimore. All met death calmly. They were William M. Ross, 23, Thurston, Md.; Arthur Swan, 20, and Otis Simmons, of Charles county.

Ross, who killed Mrs. Lottie McEliff, 35, at his home near Thurston, during an unsuccessful attempt at assault stood on the gallows with a grin. "Hold still till we get this right," the attendant adjusting the rope about his neck cautioned.

"Sure, get it right," Ross replied as the hood was drawn over his head.

Swan and Simmons were executed for the murder of Joseph Edward Carpenter, an employee of the Indian Head proving grounds, whom they shot and robbed of his pay, $100.

Alabama Man, Flogged Twice; Home Is Burned

Woman and Daughter Flogged in Alabama

Birmingham, Ala., September 9.—(AP)—While the Jefferson county grand jury was investigating a series of floggings today it was learned that a St. Clair county grand jury had failed to return indictments in connection with the flogging last April of Mrs. Belle Huggins, a widow and her daughter, Mattie, 14 years old. The two women told officers they were severely whipped because they allowed a negro to teach them to drive an automobile. The case will be before the next session of the St. Clair county grand jury.

Birmingham, Ala., September 9.—(AP)—The severe flogging on two occasions of John Lowell Bolton, 55, and the burning of his residence by a band of armed and unmasked men was revealed here today by Attorney General Charlie C. McCall. The attorney general is in Birmingham aiding in a grand jury investigation of mob whippings in Jefferson county. Bolton was "beaten unmercifully with a large strap" and kicked while he lay blindfolded on the ground, McCall told newspapermen. The attorney general, after an investigation covering months, declared himself armed with evidence which he believes will indict a large number of the floggers.

Ten minutes after Bolton had been removed from his home for the second flogging, McCall said, his house was set afire and burned to the ground. Bolton has been in hiding since the second flogging, which occurred last June.

No motive has been assigned for the whippings. The first occurred in January, the attorney general said. One night a group of men came to Bolton's home a short distance from here, where he has lived a long time. The body of the mob stood out of view while two of the men gained entrance by a back door. Bolton was seized and taken to a spot on a lonely road and flogged with a whip resembling a "cat-o-nine-tails."

On a night in June a group of men again came to Bolton's residence and requested water for an ill girl. As Bolton turned to get the water he was struck on the head by a member of the mob and he was again seized, blindfolded, taken into the woods and flogged. Bolton said that the men were masked, but all carried pistols on both occasions, according to Mr. McCall.

A motive meeting for women only will be held at the church at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon and the men of Big Bethel will participate in a special service at 4 o'clock.

EVANGELIST URGES
UNIVERSAL PEACE
AT BETHEL REVEAL

"The League of Nations, under the present plan, would mean nothing but temporary slaves. The vacant seats around the peace table constitute the reason why it will not be a success," declared the Rev. S. Douglas McDuffie, evangelist, who is conducting a series of revival meetings at Big Bethel A. M. E. church, Friday night.

The evangelist urged the church to get together and pull for universal peace. Tribute to the presidents of the United States was paid and he used these executives as examples of true Christianity. Prayers were offered for the state officials. The evangelist led the congregation, which consisted of more than 3,000 persons, in several songs. The Big Bethel church also rendered several negro spirituals.

A motive meeting for women only will be held at the church at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon and the men of Big Bethel will participate in a special service at 4 o'clock.

PIMPLE SCRATCH
ENDS GIRL'S LIFE
AT CARTERSVILLE

Cartersville, Ga., September 9.—(Special).—Blood poisoning, resulting from a pimple scratch, was the cause of the death of a young girl here.

The girl, who was 12 years old, died at the hospital after a long illness. The cause of death was determined to be blood poisoning resulting from a small scratch on her arm.

The girl's mother said that she had noticed a small red mark on her arm several days before she died. She had not given it much thought at the time.

The girl had been in good health until about a week ago, when she began to feel ill. She had lost her appetite and was constantly tired.

She was taken to the hospital on Friday and died on Saturday morning. The funeral will be held on Sunday afternoon.

The girl's name was Mary Jane Smith. She was a member of the local church.

The case has caused a great deal of concern in the community. Many people are now being warned to watch for any signs of blood poisoning.

The health department is now making a survey of all children in the city to see if they have any signs of blood poisoning.

The case is being used as a warning to all parents to watch their children closely for any signs of illness.

The girl's death is a tragedy for her family and the community. It is a reminder that even the smallest of things can have the most serious consequences.

The case is being discussed in the local newspaper to help educate the public about blood poisoning.

BULLETS RIDDLE ST. LOUIS GUNMEN

St. Louis, September 9.—(AP)—Alphonse Palazzolo, 30, notorious gunman for moonshiners, was killed here today in a new outbreak of gang warfare which has cost 18 lives in the last two years.

Police believe Palazzolo had been marked for death by friends of three other gunmen, Tony Russo, Vincent Spicuzza and Benjamin Giamanco, who were assassinated last month, Russo and Spicuzza near Chicago, and Giamanco in downtown St. Louis.

The killing of Russo and Spicuzza, who were assassinated last month, was a split in a bootleg gang which had been at war with "the cuckoo" gang here. Underworld gossip was that Palazzolo lured Russo and Spicuzza to their deaths and had Giamanco killed because he boasted he would take Russo's place as chief gunman.

Palazzolo, dressed in new and gaudy raiment, was loitering near a poolroom today when four men in an automobile stopped and began firing with shotguns and pistols. Palazzolo fell to the ground with 20 wounds. Beside the body police found a pistol which had just been fired.

The assassin, a man in a light-colored suit, was seen running away from the scene. He was carrying a bundle of clothes. The assassin escaped, one on foot and three in the automobile.

Betty Bronson Features Saturday Matinee.

"Everybody's Acting," with versatile Betty Bronson as the charming heroine, will be the feature at the children's Saturday morning matinee this week.

Boasting a wealth of acting talent from both screen and stage including Louise Dresser, Lawrence Gray, Ford Sterling, Henry Walthall and Raymond Hitchcock, noted stage star, "Everybody's Acting" unfolds a human interest story of comedy and romance.

Betty Bronson is seen as an orphan, a mischievous little mix of eight who is adopted by five foster fathers and grows up into a charming miss of 18.

A Snookum comedy in which the discovery of Snookum's tooth causes much excitement and merriment, and "School Days," a lovely prologue by pupils from the Lafontaine school of dancing, complete a well rounded bill.

Mrs. H. G. Parks and her matinee committee, Mrs. Moreton Rollstone, prologue chairman; Mrs. J. G. Courtney and Mrs. Brown, chaperon chairmen, will be assisted by the Boy and Girl Scouts and members of the P. T. A. division as follows: Mesdames J. W. McDonald, Tom Finley, W. F. Ogletree, W. H. Haskins, J. C. Kinsey and Mrs. E. Brim. Admission is 10 cents for children of school age; 25 cents for all others. Nurse maids admitted. Matinee starts promptly at 9:30.

Tech Gridders Learn To Keep Hold of Ball

Friday Afternoon Spent in Recovering Fumbles; Faist and Sprick Report.

BY BEN COTHRAN.

Working on the theory of Coach Alexander that "a football isn't going to do you any good in a football game unless you can hold it," Tech's grid candidates spent a major portion of Friday afternoon in learning to hold a football in the manner made correct o the learned Mr. Hoyie.

Then working on the theory that everyone can't hold a football all the

This activity on the part of the Teachers, working out for their fifth year, followed a lecture by Alex. J. Cook, the training rules and general laying down of the law.

The backfield received two more additions Friday in the respective persons of the former players, Ed. Clark, and George Sprick, a speedster with considerable experience in the pony backfield. That leaves Edgar, Fitzgerald, and the new guard, and the

Just before practice began Bill Fincher wandered over near the tackling pit to cast a loving glance over his buck board, which the carpenters finished Friday, and which will make his bow in gridiron society today. This means tough work for the linemen who put their shoulders to the up-rights and push the thing over the field to give them power for charging through opposing lines.

There's a member of the backfield in whom Bill takes pride. That's Oltz, a lik-ly looking youngster who played on the rat squad as a full-back last year. Oltz was out punting with Parham, Mizell and Ed Crowley. His boots were getting, on the average, better, height and distance than those of the rest, and your correspondent said as much to Bill. "Yeah," replied William, "I helped coach him last year and he's going to make a good one." When Bill Fincher talks like that about any man, he's being praised to the skies. Bill's hard to please.

A long signal drill and more tackling of the dummy ended the afternoon's work for the perspiring Tech squad.

Orlando Piles Up Two Game Lead

Orlando, Fla., September 9.—(AP)—The deliveries of Formby and Wetzel contained none of the vitamins conducive to fattening batting averages here this afternoon, Formby limit up the Miami Hustlers to one lone single, while Wetzel allowed but two safeties. Orlando forced over an unearned run in the fourth inning to make a 2-to-0 verdict and make it two victories in the post-season series for the Florida State league champion-

GERMANY PLEDGED TO WORLD PEACE

Geneva, Switzerland, September 9. (AP)—Peace as the future guiding policy of mankind received a big impetus today in that great world forum into which the assembly of the League of Nations is developing.

Germany, first among the great powers to take such a step, announced through Dr. Gustave Stresemann, foreign minister, to the accompaniment of great applause of the delegates and public, that the Reich government accepted the compulsory arbitration clause of the world court of justice, and in solemn tones assured the assembly that Germany not only would travel along the road of peace, but would seek to be a pioneer in everything that pertained to peace.

M. Briand, the French foreign minister, with Dr. Stresemann and Sir Austen Chamberlain, one of the chief artisans of the Locarno agreement, in an address to the international newspapermen which electrified everybody declared his conviction that peace possessed that mystic force which insures its permanency on earth.

The Polish delegation, after negotiations with the statesmen of the great powers, took the hit in their teeth and tonight introduced to the assembly a resolution branding all wars of aggression international crimes, and committing all the signatory nations to settle disputes of whatever nature by pacific means.

Owing to apprehension that their original demand for peace of non-aggression might be interpreted as an attempt to revise the Geneva protocol, which expired after opposition emanating particularly from Great Britain, the Polish delegates eliminated this feature from their proposal, but M. Sokal, Polish representative, pleaded vigorously with the assembly to approve his declaration outlawing war, believing that it would at least have a great moral force and would strengthen the covenant of the League of Nations. This resolution will be considered later by the assembly.

FOUR NICARAGUAN BANDITS ARE SLAIN

Managua, Nicaragua, September 9. (AP)—American marines engaged in another skirmish with bandits northeast of Managua, the Honduran border yesterday morning. It was learned to four bandits were killed and six wounded, two seriously. The marines, who captured considerable ammunition, arms and supplies, suffered no casualties.

END TO FLOODS SEE BY NOVEMBER

Baton Rouge, La., September 9. (AP)—Secretary of Commerce Herbert Hoover here tonight expressed to the Louisiana legislature, in special session on flood relief measures, his confidence that the combined talents of United States engineers, backed by the president, congress and people of the nation, will forever prevent a recurrence of floods in the Mississippi valley.

"I am confident," he said, "that engineering science is capable of the design and construction of such works as will forever prevent its recurrence. I am confident that we have in the United States engineers a body of men that have the ability and scientific knowledge to bring forward a design through which this can be accomplished. I am confident that the American people as a whole are not only sympathetic but anxious that the forthcoming congress shall adopt sound plans and provide the necessary resources for their execution. I know that our able secretary of war and the many members of the senate and congress who have visited the flood area are resolute on a solution. President Coolidge has given ample evidence of his leadership in this regard. I am confident that this unity in desire assures a favorable outcome," the commerce secretary said.

LOANS OPPOSED

Washington, September 9.—(P)—Senator Harrison, a democratic member of the senate foreign relations committee, declared today that this position affecting private French loans in this country until France has overruled should take no affirmative action to fund her war debt to the United States.

"Instead of encouraging such loans, the government should object to any further loans to the debtor countries until their war loans to the United States have been funded," he said.

Great Britain, Belgium, Italy and practically all of the European countries have funded their debt agreements and they have been approved by congress and are now making payments according to the terms.

"France, and France alone, has refused to agree to a funding of her debt through the terms offered to France. We have been more favorable than to any other country except Italy.

ON MAY 22, 1863, THE UNION GUNBOAT FLEET UNDER ADMIRAL PORTER ARRIVED BEFORE VICKSBURG TO COOPERATE WITH GRANT'S ARMY. COMING WITHIN RANGE, THE WARSHIPS AND MORTAR-BOATS BEGAN A HEAVY BOMBARDMENT OF THE RIVER FRONT AND THE CONFEDERATE BATTERIES ON THE BLUFFS.

THE SAME DAY THE UNION ARMY MADE A DESPERATE ASSAULT UPON THE CONFEDERATE LINES IN THE REAR OF VICKSBURG. THE FEDERALS ADVANCED WITH GREAT DETERMINATION AND BRAVERY AND SUCCEEDED IN PLANTING THEIR COLORS ON THE PARAPET AT SEVERAL POINTS.

The Second Assault on Vicksburg.

THE ATTACK WAS MET BY AN EQUALLY COURAGEOUS RESISTANCE OF THE DEFENDERS AND THE CHARGING LINES OF BLUE WERE THRUST BACK. BOTH SIDES SUFFERED SEVERE LOSSES AND THE GROUND IN FRONT OF THE CONFEDERATE WORKS WAS DOTTED WITH FALLEN UNION SOLDIERS.

by J. CARROLL MANSFIELD

LATER, AT THE SUGGESTION OF GEN. FEM. BERTON, A TRUCE WAS ARRANGED TO PERMIT THE FEDERALS TO REMOVE THEIR WOUNDED AND SLAIN. DURING THIS BRIEF ARMISTICE, NORTHERN AND SOUTHERN OFFICERS AND SOLDIERS FRATERNIZED BETWEEN THE OPPOSING LINES.
